By definition, an entrepreneur is a person who has possession of an enterprise, or venture, and assumes significant accountability for the inherent risks and the outcome. It is an ambitious leader who combines labor and capital to create and market new goods or services.

The Sports-O-Zone Sanitizing System is a process, to provide a service, of sanitation for personal protective equipment. The use of ozone as a media for killing micro-organisms is well documented and growing in acceptance.

As you visit our website and gather information, we want to caution you that no product or service will sell itself without the proper marketing, customer education, capital, hard work and financial management. The profitable performance of your business model will depend on these factors and on the most important intangible you.
